

Notice of 2020 Students' Representative Council Annual Elections

Nominations
NOW OPEN!

Nominations for the Students' Representative Council Annual Elections for the year 2020 close at 4:30pm on Wednesday the 26th of August 2020.

Online Polling will be held on the 29th, 30th Sept and 1st Oct 2020 using BigPulse. BigPulse is an Australian online election system used internationally for many association and university elections.

All undergraduate students who are duly enrolled for attendance at lectures are eligible to vote. Members of the student body who have paid their nomination fee to Council are eligible to nominate and be nominated, except National Union of Students national office bearers. Full-time office bearers of the SRC may also nominate as NUS delegates.

Nominations are called for the following elections/positions and open on the 5th August 2020 at 4:30pm:

- (a) The election of the Representatives to the 93rd SRC (35 positions)
- (b) The election of the President of the 93rd SRC
- (c) The election of the Editor(s) of Honi Soit for the 93rd SRC
- (d) The election of National Union of Students delegates for the 93rd SRC (7 positions)

Nominations can only be accepted online from 4:30pm August 5th 2020 via BigPulse accessible through the SRC website: www.srcusyd.net.au/elections.

For more information email admin.manager@src.usyd.edu.au.

Online nominations must be completed no later than 4:30pm on Wednesday 26th August, via BigPulse.

Nominations which have not been completed by the close of nominations will not be accepted regardless of when they were commenced. BigPulse will automatically lock out any nomination not completed by the close of nominations.
